.. RUGS ..

Two or three times each year we import from the Coast a sufficient quantity of rugs to supply our customers for sometime. By purchasing in large quantities we get them at a moderate price and having freight to pay on but the one shipment instead of on a lot of small shipments we are able to sell them at low prices. In order that we may not get poor patterns we have the manufacturers and jobbers send us about twice as many rugs as we need. This year we received a large shipment, all being nice patterns. We do not expect to return any of them to the coast and have marked them at prices that will sell them. Of course early visitors today will have the larger line to select from. The shipment includes:

Superior Axminsters.

Sizes 9 ft. by 12 ft., 8 ft. 3 in. by 10 ft., and smaller.

Bigelow Bagdad Wiltons.

9x12 and smaller sizes.

Imperial Brussels.

A large line, all sizes, many pretty patterns.

Imperial Smyrna.

In all sizes, from door mats to parlor rugs of large size, brilliant pattern, and exquisite coloring.

Moquette Rugs.

A large line of low priced rugs of all sizes.

CELESTIAL NEW YEAR'S

by the visitors, for the club house is well furnished.

Then the Ying Yee Society on Hotel and Maunakea street found considerable favor. The new, large, commodious club house on Achil lane off Hotel street, lighted by a mass of electric lights, was a center of attraction. The spacious assembly hall was thronged until a late hour and the big red visiting cards of the Chinese and the smaller white ones of the foreigners, formed a great heap. From all the clubs the visitors carried away as souvenirs the single style of red visiting cards. Tonight the clubs will again hold open house.

CHINESE UNITED SOCIETIES.

The rooms of the Chinese United Societies were visited by a large number of Chinese and haoles the latter largely representing the Territorial and Federal offices, and the business houses of the city. President Ai and the officers received from 12 to 1 in the assembly room, while the Hawaiian Government band played on the veranda. Cigars, sweetmeats and other delicacies were offered the guests, and cards were interchanged. Nearly all of the haoles, at least those representing business houses, had their names printed on card with the Chinese interpretation thereof. Among those present were Dr. McDonald, Fred Whitney, Goo War Hoy, Hee Guy, A. S. Humphreys, E. R. Hendry, C. M. V. Forster, Hackfeld & Co., T. Ah King, M. Phillips, R. F. Lange, H. Y. Lee, H. Glade, T. J. King, Len That En, W. M. Langton, T. F. Lansing, P. H. Burnette, Von Hamm-Young Co., W. W. Awana, Dr. Hodgins, C. Man, J. Wakefield, H. Reinecke, W. C. Weedon, Tai Lung, Salvation Army, Tong Phong, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Hare, Goo Kim Fook, Wm. Heen, Wong Hin, A. W. Heen, Dr. Cooper, C. Winam, W. Y. Kwai Fong, R. W. Breckons, Fo Kam Gin, Hawaiian Chinese Club, R. R. Reidford, Mr. Stipp, W. A. Love, A. Berg, Wong Kim Chong, Choy Woon, California Feed Co., J. H. Soper, Jos. Y. T. Zane.

PRESIDENT TURNS DOWN JUDGE GEAR'S AMBITIONS

who, after looking at the papers, found indications of White House disapproval of the Judge. No one, of course, wanted to be other than courteous to Mrs. Gear. Every possible attention was shown her. At the same time Mr. Moody told Delegate Kuhio he could give her no encouragement.

The Delegate escorted her to the White House and also to the Attorney General's office. "I was pleased," said he, "to be of any service to Mrs. Gear, and gladly went with her, but at the same time I am sorry she undertook to look up the case. It is difficult business for a woman. It is plain to me that the President intends to appoint some one else to succeed him."

Subsequently it was learned that Delegate Kuhio had indorsed Judge Gear for renomination. He assured Mrs. Gear he had done so and would work to help him.

The campaign for the vacancy will probably be in full swing next week or soon thereafter, when Judge Gear is himself coming to Washington. Mrs. Gear, who was received very cordially by friends here, including those from Hawaii now in the city, has preceded her husband by only a few weeks and is going on to New York to be with her parents a few days before they sail for Europe. Then she returns to this city to meet the Judge.

It seems that the Judge's plans will be for either a renomination or an investigation of conditions in Hawaii. He will make strong representations regarding the guardian case, which will probably be heard by the Supreme Court here week after next, and will assail Governor Carter's attitude toward the judiciary, pointing out that Judge Hartwell of the Territorial Supreme Bench is the Governor's kinsman, and claiming that the program is to appoint Magistrate Judd, another kinsman, to his (Gear's) place. Some of the Judge's friends in the Senate have already been appealed to. Senator Perkins of California, in whose State Judge Gear lived for a time, has been informed of Judge Gear's side of the case. Then, the fact that he is a nephew of the late Senator Gear of Iowa, will be used to interest some of Senator Gear's old colleagues in the Senate.

Representations are also made here that, much as Judge Gear would like a reappointment as a vindication of the attacks against him, he is not very desirous of it from a financial standpoint, but might prefer to return to San Francisco and practice law. It is said that he could make an excellent legal connection there with Attorney Herrin of the Southern Pacific. At least, that is the Washington talk. None the less, he proposes to press his fight earnestly when he arrives in town.

ERNEST G. WALKER.

(A LATER LETTER.)

WASHINGTON, D. C., Jan. 25.—Secretary McClellan was asked about the Delegate's attitude toward the renomination of Judge Gear. He was told how the Delegate had said that the renomination was impossible and how Mrs. Gear had subsequently stated it as her understanding that the Delegate had indorsed Judge Gear for renomination.

"Why, I am very certain that Kuhio has not indorsed Judge Gear," Mr. McClellan replied. "I think he does not want to be drawn into that controversy. He went with Mrs. Gear to see different officials here, as a mere matter of courtesy. They went to see Senator Foraker. Senator Kearns was also seen. I suppose it is generally understood that the papers in the Department of Justice were found to bear a double cross, which indicates the President's intention not to reappoint him."

The House has passed the bill relating to the exercise of the powers of judge in the Territory of Hawaii. It was introduced last December by Chairman Jenkins of the Judiciary Committee, who also drew the report. Only one amendment was made by the Committee, that being a provision that the judge designated to act in the place of another judge on the district bench, shall not be "so related, interested, absent, or incapacitated" as was the judge whose place he is to fill. The bill passed the House without debate. The committee report was brief, simply citing how the bill had originated in a request from the United States District Attorney at Honolulu.
